

NOTES FROM A CITY EDITOR'S DAYBOOK—Another county organization has been launched, dedicated to the encouragement of business, agriculture and industry, and from this point it has a considerable prospect of success.

The Lee County Agricultural-Business Relations committee has been simmering for some months but last night, at a meeting in Amboy, there was divulged something of a program for the organization.

BUT BEFORE we get into that, it is well to point out that there are members from every one of the 22 townships in the county. The organization is the brainchild of the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce and has the avowed purpose of "bringing about a better understanding among those in the business of agriculture, commerce, finance and industry; to foster development of industrial uses of products of Illinois agriculture; to encourage actively the work of the Northern Regional Research laboratory operated by the United States department of agriculture at Peoria; and to promote the study of local problems affecting agriculture and all types of business that will lead to a satisfactory solution not only locally but ultimately at the state and in the national levels."

That's a broad and billowing program for any organization and obviously the steering committee and the county committee, as now set up, will find it hard to concentrate on one project at a time.

But what the county committee did last night was to narrow to four what it thought needed consideration at this time. Here were the four:

1—A county-wide agricultural fair for Lee county.

2—Some consistency in the adoption or rejection of daylight or "fast" time.

3—Improvement of telephone service in some of the rural areas, principally the establishment of some "reciprocal" phone agreements between rival exchanges.

4—Consolidation of township road districts, to provide a more economical way to improve farm-to-town highways.

It should be pointed out that this four-point program was not officially adopted but seemed to be the problems uppermost in the minds of the group.

L. F. JOHN, a Lee Center implement dealer, brought the county fair and road programs to the meeting. He had the idea a great many Lee Countians are nurturing that a full-fledged county fair would be a worthy project. It would be, in John's thinking, wise to consider the consolidation of three or four minor fairs that are now being fostered throughout the county. Whether this would meet the approval of these sponsoring groups is a moot question.

We have several times noted here that the restoration of the county fair would be a splendid idea. And it seems that the promotion of the scheme is well within the province of this new county group.

The road plan, as explained by John, revolves around the apparent desire of two or three townships to consolidate their funds, machinery and planning to improve their highway systems. Consolidation of anything—raises the hair on the neck of a good number of our citizens and it's something to be discussed and debated later.

Gen. Ike Rips Demo 'Slanders, Innuendos'

Low Tactics Used to Hide Own Record

Gov. Dewey Accuses Truman of Heading 'Stinking' Campaign

ABOARD EISENHOWER SPECIAL IN NEW YORK STATE—(AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower campaigned today through industrial cities of New York state, hitting at what he called opposition slander and innuendos that he would destroy unions.

The Republican presidential candidate told a cheering crowd in Schenectady, home of a big General Electric plant, that his opponents were making such charges because they wanted to perpetuate themselves in power and divert attention from their own record.

Dewey With Ike

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, 1948 GOP nominee, was accompanying Eisenhower on the trip from Albany to Buffalo.

Eisenhower Wednesday night told a wildly cheering audience in Troy that the Democratic administration had adopted the inflation policy to win the election by duping the people into thinking they had more money.

But Dewey, in introducing Eisenhower, delivered an even more blistering attack. He accused Truman of heading an "unholy, filthy, stinking campaign."

Referring to Republican charges that Truman falsely accused Eisenhower of religious and racial bias, Dewey asked:

"How low can you get to conceal skeletons in your own White House?"

Dewey asked the Troy audience whether the voters were going to allow Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois, Democratic presidential candidate, to "sneak into the White House on a slimy trail of Truman mud."

Inflation a Policy

Eisenhower, ripping into the Truman administration, told 10,000 persons jammed into the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute Field House at Troy:

"The inflation we suffer is not an accident. It is a policy."

The general said the Democratic administration aim was to "give more people more money that is worth less."

Eisenhower already has announced that he will make his final campaign speech in Boston on Nov. 3. His schedule for the days immediately preceding is technically "open" so that he can move into cities where he can do his campaign the most good.

Sen. Paul Douglas Stumps for Dixon

BELLEVILLE, Ill.—(AP)—U. S. Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill.) campaigned through this area today for the election of Sherwood Dixon, Democratic nominee for governor.

"The varied achievements in Illinois which have earned Governor Stevenson his right to be elected president will nevertheless be lost to Illinois unless Sherwood Dixon is elected governor," Douglas said in a talk prepared for a Democratic rally.

370 Killed, 200 Injured In Philippines' Typhoon

MANILA—(AP)—The Philippine Red Cross said tonight 370 persons were dead and 200 were missing in the wake of Wednesday's typhoon.

The Red Cross said several hundred were injured.

The tabulation was based on telegraphic and radio reports trickling in from the devastated provinces.

The tropical storm roared out into the South China Sea Wednesday and today threatened the battered shores of Indochina about 850 miles to the southwest. A Saigon report said the typhoon would hit the coast Friday night.

Indochina, while waiting for the storm, was trying to clean up from the tidal wave that hit Phan Thiet Monday night, possibly killing as many as 300 persons.

Broken communications lines slowed the reports of Philippines casualties and damage.

A late report said 118 were killed in Tabaco, a town of 23,209 on Southern Luzon. Officials here

Grunewald Indicted By Jury

Hold 'Mystery Man' Who Would Not Testify

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A federal grand jury today indicted Henry W. (The Dutchman) Grunewald, a shadowy man-about-Washington, on 22 charges of contempt of Congress.

Grunewald's name flitted in and out of the sensation-packed hearings last year by a House committee investigating tax frauds.

Grunewald finally was called as a witness last January, but declined on advice of counsel to answer any questions.

Today's indictment charged among other things that Grunewald refused to tell the House ways and means subcommittee what officials of the Internal Revenue Bureau he knew, and whether he had ever discussed any tax cases pending in that bureau.

Faces 22 Years

Grunewald, if convicted on each count of the indictment, would be subject to maximum penalties of 22 years in prison or $22,000 fine, or both.

The matter the House committee particularly wanted to explore was Grunewald's story told by Abraham Teitelbaum, Chicago lawyer and one time counsel for Capone interests.

"Teitelbaum swore to the investigators that an attempt was made to shake him down for $500,000 under a threat that he would have bad tax troubles if he didn't pay the sum."

Teitelbaum said he received a telephone call from a man who identified himself as "Mr. Watson" and who told him he had better "play along." He said this man had a guttural voice.

Testimony was developed that T. Lamar Caudle, assistant attorney general since fired, exclaimed when he heard the story of the guttural-voiced telephone call: "That must have been The Dutchman."

Made Inquiries

Charles Oliphant, chief counsel of the Internal Revenue Bureau, testified that Grunewald had made inquiries about Teitelbaum's tax case. Oliphant resigned his government post in the midst of the inquiry.

Grunewald has been something of a mystery man about Washington for many years. He lives in a luxurious apartment and obviously has a large income. The government has brought multi-figure liens against him in connection with claimed taxes due but unpaid.

He has always been reticent about his affairs.

"He is a native of South Africa, born of German parents; came to the United States and was naturalized in 1908. He has been a prohibition agent and a private investigator."

Lee County Teachers Relax Before Meeting

Alert Three States for Four Who Abducted Ten

SPARTA, Tenn.—Police searched three states today for a quartet of bandits whose leader described himself as a "three-gun maniac" and lived up to the description in a highway kidnapping spree.

The gang, including a bashful boy of 18 who carried boxing gloves and a robe with him, abducted 10 persons and stole three cars yesterday.

The victims escaped in the same haphazard manner they were kidnapped—one, two or three at a time at different places along U. S. 41.

Bandits Fire

The state highway patrol said some of them were fired on by the bandits as they got away, but apparently none was injured.

A newly married couple from Houston, Me., were the first to escape. They jumped out at a stop light at Sparta and spread the story of the wild spree of wholesale kidnapping and petty robbery.

A wide ground and air search was launched and roadblocks were set up in Tennessee, Kentucky and Georgia.

Three of the abductors then took the captives and drove off in a car owned by three Indiana youths already held prisoner, while the fourth sped off in the opposite direction in the bandits' car.

Four of the captives were picked up later in the day as the bandits

Rob Post Office, Take $20, Letter

CHICAGO—(AP)—Three masked gunmen raided the postoffice in suburban Elmwood Park today and sped off with less than $20 in cash—and a single letter.

Postal Inspector William Cuklin said the robbers took the small sum of money and a three-ounce piece of mail that was addressed to the First State Bank of Elmwood Park.

Doggone It! Get Out and Vote, Says Dog

DIXON CANINES have been enlisted in the get-out-the-vote campaign by the Dixon Junior Chamber of Commerce. If you want one for your dog, just contact Dean Kress or acquire it from Collins and Anderson, veterinarians.

Two Bandits Take $2,000 Early Today

Leave Behind Much More Cash in Daylight Stickup

SHEFFIELD, Ill.—(AP)—Two gunmen walked into the Farmers State Bank today, locked three members of the staff and a customer in a vault and fled with $2,000 in a paper sack.

They left several thousand dollars behind.

The robbery occurred at 9:08 a. m., and was carried out this way:

Use Paper Sack

The gunmen—one tall and the other short and both described as in their 20s—drew revolvers. The tall robber handed a paper sack to Robert Boyden, vice president, and commanded:

"Fill it up."

Boyden put in $2,000 in cash from one of the cages.

The robbers then forced Boyden; two tellers, Frances Mette and Marilyn Spratt; and a customer, George Kane, into the bank vault.

The gunmen locked the vault door. But Boyden tripped an emergency release from the inside and freed himself and the others.

Flee in Sedan

The robbers fled in a light-colored Studebaker sedan.

They neglected to take several thousand dollars from other cages in the bank.

The members of the bank staff said the gunmen seemed inexperienced but were calm.

State police and county officials set up road blocks in Henry, Lee and Bureau Counties.

Huge Ranch Sold Today

CHICAGO—(AP)—One of the largest ranches in Western United States history was completed today when nearly one million acres changed hands at a price in excess of three million dollars.

Two Chicagoans and a Los Angeles oil man bought the Gerlach Ranch, including 7,000 head of cattle and 8,000 head of sheep, from Lawrence Holland.

The ranch is about 100 miles north of Reno, Nev.

The huge ranch area includes a 10,000-foot mountain range, deserts, meadows, valleys, lakes, dozens of hot springs, scores of cold springs, creeks, dams, reservoirs and sub-ranches devoted to sheep, cattle and horse raising.

Sailor, Soldier Declare Peace, But Pay Fines

A Canadian soldier and a United States navy man who battled in the city jail Monday night, were both fined $10 and costs and released from jail Monday.

David Davis, the soldier, wound up in KSB hospital as a result of the brawl with Donald Sayrok, Dayton, O., the pint-sized sailor.

Both were arrested Monday when their difficulties began on a bus which arrived here.

A charge of assault and battery against Sayrok was dropped when the two cemented international relations before Justice of the Peace Sterling W. Schrock. The fines were assessed for being drunk and disorderly.

Institute Hears Dr. De Young

World Traveller Urges Global War Against Ignorance

By SUE HANSEN

Lee county public school teachers were told here today what the world has in common in education greatly over-balances its differences.

Dr. Chris A. DeYoung, head of the department of psychology at Illinois State Normal university, told the county conference that better education is the key to world-wide understanding and that educators must wage a global war against illiteracy.

Dr. DeYoung spoke before 350 educators at a morning session of the annual teacher's institute held in the Dixon high school auditorium.

World Traveller

Drawing from his experiences from teaching abroad and from two trips around the world, Dr. DeYoung told the educators that "defense of peace must be established in the minds of men."

He told of the great spread of the communistic ideology in the Far East and reminded his listeners that we are living in close geographical proximity to this Russian-inspired menace.

For that reason, he emphasized, it was a great mistake to allow India and Asia to fall prey to the communistic ideology.

"This is the zero hour in Asiatic relationships," said Dr. DeYoung. "We cannot be like an ostrich when the world is seething with revolution."

Not United

"This is not a united world—it is a divided world," he continued. "We must accept the challenge of education in a divided world."

Dr. DeYoung, in explanation, said that illiteracy is so widespread in India that picture symbols, representing the various political faiths, are used during elections.

In urging eradication of poverty and disease, he said that "where people are thin, rats are fat," thus bringing home the fact that starving Asians are easily persuaded by Communist leaders.

He also commented that the

Overconfidence Dangerous, GOP Leader Warns

JOLIET, Ill.—(AP)—Morton H. Hollingsworth, chairman of the Republican state committee, today advised Republicans against overconfidence in an appeal to all to vote in the Nov. 4 election.

"Four years ago all three election polls gave Thomas Dewey a sure victory in the presidential race," Hollingsworth said. "But President Truman was reelected."

"We were so sure then that we let down. We can't let that happen again."

"Some recent polls show that although General Eisenhower still has a comfortable margin, Governor Stevenson is showing gains in strength in some areas. That is the sort of thing we must be wary of. We must keep the advantage we now have."

Seventh Division Troops Throw Back Chinese Reds

SEOUL, Korea—(AP)—U. S. Seventh division troops on Triangle hill tonight threw back an assault by Chinese Reds who stormed the peak shortly after dark.

Frontline officers said the battle raged for two hours. The Red attack was powered by elements of one battalion, about 500 men.

In another Central front battle, South Korean troops regained the crest of Iron Horse Mountain, then battled fiercely against counter-attacking Chinese.

The U. S. Eighth Army said the ROK Ninth Division captured complete control of the hill and a nearby knob at 1:20 p.m. The Chinese launched their counterattack about 90 minutes later.

Fighting for the high ground, at the western end of the old Iron Triangle, has raged for two weeks.

The Reds had held it since Saturday.

About 20 miles to the east, U. S. battle front officers said the Chinese were bringing up fresh troops to reinforce their battered battalions threatening Sniper Ridge and Triangle Hill.

Triangle and Sniper Ridge are the keys to towering Papa-San Mountain, a Communist staging area just to the north.

In the air war, U. S. Sabre jet pilots tangled twice with Russian-type MIG-15s deep in northwest Korea. The Fifth Air Force said one Red warplane was destroyed.

Presidential Hoop-La Puzzles the Frenchman

By ROSEMARY MARGROVE

PARIS — (NEA) — The Frenchman scratched his head and shrugged.

"I do not," he said, "understand why you Americans get so excited over the election of a president. Here we take it calmly."

His wonder was understandable. Compared to an American presidential race, with all its accompanying hoop-la, the election of a president in usually exciting France is a mild and unexciting event.

This is because the choice of a chief executive is not made directly by the people. The voting is done by the 521 deputies of the National Assembly and the 315 senators of the Council of the Republic.

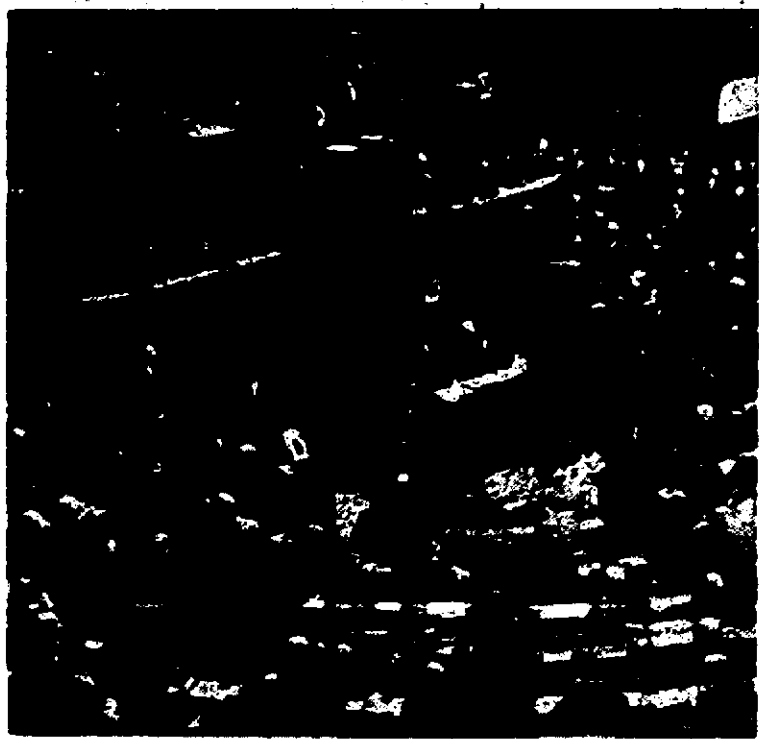

The process is much the same as if our own president were elected by the Senate and House of Representatives in Washington.

There is little whipping up of popular sentiment. In fact, since the birth of the Third Republic in 1870, presidential elections have scarcely stirred public opinion. The president, unless he was a national hero beforehand, does not become a real public figure until after his election.

The Constitution says that any Frenchman—be he butcher, baker, candlestick-maker, or even a thymester—can aspire to the presidency. The only requirements are that he be at least 21 years old and not a member of any former royal family.

Actually, of course, candidates are usually narrowed down to two or three citizens who are truly outstanding.

Elections are held every seven years within 15 or 30 days before the term of the present office holder is due to expire. The next one will come in January, 1954, when a successor will be picked for President Vincent Auriol, a Socialist elected in 1947.

THIS IS A PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION in France. Here members of Parliament crowd around the rostrum (center) to drop their ballots in the urns in front of the dais in 1947 election.

On the date picked for an election, the Congress meets at 2 p. m. in the Salle du Congress at Versailles, which seats 900 and is part of the royal palace, located above the royal stables. After disposing of certain formalities, the members begin their voting.

Voting continues until one candidate has won a majority, much like our own nominating conventions. There is no lobbying and the man who wins is often an "outsider."

When the winner is announced, he is escorted to a room known as the "president's drawing room" to be congratulated by his peers. Custom decrees that his first official visit shall be to his predecessor at the Elysee Palace in Paris.

It is common knowledge that a president leaves the palace a poorer man than when he entered. He gets a personal salary of four million francs (less than $12,000) and liberal expense allowances. But his high standard of living and restraint from outside business activity leaves him little savings.

Borg-Warner Settles Six Of Walkouts

CHICAGO — Borg-Warner Corporation has announced the settlement of wage disputes in six of the firm's strikebound plants.

A company spokesman said Wednesday that the settlements, individually made in each plant, included wage increase of from 12 to 24 cents an hour.

Some 4,400 members of the CIO United Auto Workers struck two months ago in Borg-Warner plants in Chicago and Rockford, Ill., Detroit and Kalamazoo, Mich., New Castle, Ind., and Memphis, Tenn.

The spokesman said the settlements have brought 3,000 strikers back to work, but that other workers are still out at the Rockford and New Castle plants.

He said there was no information on average hourly wages of workers.

Ferguson Ill

CADILLAC, Mich. — Sen. Homer Ferguson (R-Mich.) was expected to be released from Cadillac hospital today after treatment for what doctors termed an attack of acute indigestion.

Ferguson suffered the attack Wednesday night at a Republican party banquet at Luther, Mich., 30 miles southwest of here, and was forced to cancel a scheduled political speech.

Take Soda Bath To Trim Weight: Red Professor

By EDDY GILMORE

MOSCOW — U. S. — The Soviet Union's outstanding authority on how to live longer—Prof. Olga Lepeshinskaya—today disclosed her formula: take soda baths and avoid war propaganda.

The 51-year-old biology professor said that old standby, bicarbonate of soda, when added to hot baths would not only prolong life but reduce fat.

Her formula as published today in the English-language magazine News, said:

"Numerous clinical researchers have proved, great nervous shocks not infrequently bring cancer. Therefore atomic alerts, practiced in certain countries, and war scare atmosphere tend in the long run to reduce life expectancy."

Prof. Lepeshinskaya recommends about 2 to 3 1/2 ounces of soda to each tubful of water at about 95 degrees temperature.

Among results she noted was "a general loss of weight, more particularly through the disappearance of fat on the stomach."

She's Not Sick

PITTSBURGH, — Bennie Boscalli was alone in his fruit market Wednesday when a woman who "looked at least 65" stepped up to the counter and asked for a glass of water.

As Bennie turned his back on the apparently ill woman to get the water, she whipped out a revolver and said softly, "Hand over the money."

The bewildered fruit market operator gave her $45 and she departed. Bennie later told police: "I was stunned—she looked so sick."

Hardware Men Push Do-It-Yourself Trend With a Raft of New Gadgets

By RICHARD KLEINER

NEW YORK—To the hills, men. They're after us. "They" are the nation's hardware manufacturers, who are trying to popularize a do-it-yourself trend among the nation's house-husbands.

At the National Hardware Show here, booth after booth was loaded with subversive devices, designed to turn the American male into a combination carpenter-electrician-plumber, whether he wants to be turned or not. There's not an easy chair in the joint.

But there are tools and machines, ranging from old-fashioned screw drivers to entire home workshops, which will do everything from hanging pictures to building houses. We haven't got a chance.

There's one electric sander, as an example, that's a triple-threat assault on our laziness. "It sands, polishes and massages," says the sign. We not only have to be a repair man, then, but they're trying to make us into a masseur-it-yourself.

Another device is a torch which aims to replace the good old blowtorch. It's a lightweight cylinder of propane gas, with a nozzle. You can light it with a match, it'll burn for at least 16 hours, then you throw the cylinder away and get a new one.

This torch is supposed to be just the thing for the man who wants to do any of the following: tinning, burning paint, fitting pipes, laying tile, doing body and fender work, soldering jewelry, splicing cable, softening old putty. Nothing like a peaceful evening at home, softening old putty.

There's an electric jig saw that's billed as "safe for children to use." If you have a six-year-old that feels a hankering to cut asphalt tiles, this is the very thing.

More and more chores can be

FAMILY ACT is the idea of this new multi-purpose power tool for home workshops. While Pop uses the jointer to build a cabinet, mom's using the drill press to shine the silver.

done by you, unfortunately. A new canned compressed air bomb, like the ones with whipped cream and insect killers, can shampoo and dye rugs in one operation. It comes in five colors. After a hard day at the office, you can spend your evening relaxing over a wet rug.

Or you can re-cover bicycle seats, with the help of a new kit. That is if you feel like re-covering bicycle seats. All sorts of snazzy coverings, too, including one in leopard skin. Now your child can have the flashiest seat on the block.

One kind manufacturer has taken pity on us men and especially on our often-battered thumbs. A new type of picture hook uses gummed tape, with a hook attached. You moisten it, apply one to the wall and one to the back of the picture, and the job's done. They'll support 15 pounds and will work on galss, tile and mental as well as wood and plaster.

Another industrial Good Samaritan has produced a solder in the form of tape. You wrap it around the joint you want to join, then just apply heat from a soldering iron or even a candle.

To make all these do-it-yourself appliances nice and homey, many of the manufacturers are turning the tools out in eye-catching styles. Even some of the electric spray-ers and drills now come in all colors. Some of the items are neatly packaged, some newly streamlined, some chrome-plated.

And don't think, fellows, that Christmas will bring any respite. If one tool maker has his way, under the tree you'll find a lovely Christmas gift box. It's nicely wrapped in red ribbon, too, and contains the very thing you've always wanted — four assorted chisels.

Five Tots Die In Home Blaze

TYRONE, Pa. — Fire destroyed a Pennsylvania railroad shopman's home early today. Five of his six children are missing.

Edwin T. Smith said only he, his wife, and their 8-month-old baby escaped.

Firemen said it would be several hours before they could probe the ruins. Cause of the fire was unknown.

Neighbors reported Smith jumped from a second-floor window after his wife jumped with their youngest child in her arms.

Mrs. Smith and the baby were reported in critical condition. Smith's condition was fair.

The missing children are Tommy, 4; Kenneth, 13; Rose Mary 1; Daniel 6; and David 2.

Lee County Group Plugs For Banking Amendment

Formation of a Lee County Citizens committee to conduct a campaign for adoption of the Blue Ballot Banking Amendment at the Nov. 4 general election has been announced.

Membership in the Lee County Committee includes representatives of business, agriculture and other civic groups, including Forest Robins, president of the Lee County Farm Bureau, chairman; Henry A. Lovett, president of the Dixon National bank, co-chairman; Rep. Charles Willett, chairman of the Lee County committee, as secretary; William J. Kehoe, chairman of the Lee County committee, as treasurer.

On the executive committee are the following: Mrs. Glenn Proulx, Lee County Home Bureau, Ashton; Quinn J. Torri, grain merchant, Compton; C. A. Knutson, purchased Angus cattle breeder, Steward; Max Van Scoy, executive vice president of City National bank, Dixon; Oscar Hasselberg, supervisor Lee Center township; Rep. Hubert Conzidine, Harmon; T. R. Rosenkrans, distributor farm seeds, Pawpaw; Emerich Weishaar, implement dealer, Ashton; Everett Barnes, supervisor Amboy township; Ray Lidenburger, president West Brooklyn Farmers Co-Operative Co.

L. J. Welch, city commissioner of Dixon; George Webber, supervisor Viola township; Ellis E. Rees, distributor Standard Oil products, Scarborough; M. M. Fell, Steward; Miss Dorothy Armstrong, executive chairman Lee Co. Cancer society, Dixon; Charles Hatch, farmer and livestock dealer, Sublette; Frank Nangle, former corner of Lee county, Pawpaw; F. L. Jahn, implement dealer, Lee Center; Jack Swanson, farm management service, Ashton; Harvey Truckenbrod, farmer, West Brooklyn; L. L. Brink, president First National bank in Amboy; Mrs. Mary Zimmerman, president Campton Women's club; Howard Rapp, farmer, Sublette; Charles Place, Cities Service Products, Compton; R. C. Cross, farmer, Franklin Grove; H. L. Rhoads, director Pawpaw Farmers Elevator Co.; Elmer Fulton, farmer, Ashton; Wilman E. Davis, farmer, Pawpaw; Mrs. Ralph Long, Lee Co. Home Bureau, Sublette.

The banking amendment is one of four amendments that will appear on the Blue Ballot in November. It would eliminate present constitutional provisions for double liability on state bank stock that discriminate against state banks and against the state's dual banking system.

The Banking Amendment is a step in the continuing Gateway campaign for better government and a more modern Illinois Constitution. This campaign went into high gear in 1950 with the passage of the Gateway Amendment by an overwhelming margin.

A statewide Citizens Committee has always been formed to coordinate the effort of the county committees. It is headed by Franklin

McCarthy Says He Welcomes Postal Probe

PORTLAND, Ore.—(AP)—Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) said here Wednesday night that he welcomes investigation of a complaint that he abused his franking privilege.

He denied that he had ever misused the franking privilege, which allows congressmen to send official business letters through the mail without stamps.

A post office department spokesman said in Washington that the complaint against McCarthy came from "someone who apparently received through the mails something which they believed should not have been franked."

The post office spokesman said there is no penalty for abuse of the franking privilege, except possibly to make a congressman pay for stamps on disputed mail.

There's really no secret to gravy success if a tested recipe is closely followed.

Use extra or left-over gravy in "made" dishes later. Allow 1/4 cup gravy per person. For each cup of gravy, use 1 1/2 tablespoons each of fat and flour and 1 cup liquid. For 4 cups of gravy, use 6 tablespoons drippings from roasting pan, 6 tablespoons flour, 4 cups liquid—giblet broth, milk or water.

Pour the drippings (the fat and meat juice in the roasting pan) into a bowl, leaving all the brown residue in the pan. Let the fat rise to the top. Skim off all the fat, then measure amount needed for gravy back into the roasting pan. The meat juice under the fat may be used as part of the liquid for the gravy. Add flour and blend with the fat. Set roasting pan over very low heat.

Cook until frothy, stirring constantly. Add the measured liquid, cool or lukewarm, not hot, all at once. Increase heat and cook, stirring constantly until uniformly thickened. While stirring, scrape and blend the brown residue into the gravy. Simmer about 5 minutes.

Season well to taste. Serve very hot. For giblet gravy, add diced or ground cooked giblets. Since gravy tends to thicken and form a "skin" over the top as it cools, serve only enough at one time to take care of first servings.

It is usually best to limit the garnish to parsley, watercress or other salad greens. Holiday or special occasion dinner exceptions are glazed apple or orange slices; spiced apples, pears or peaches; orange, grapefruit or lemon baskets filled with applesauce; cranberry jelly, mashed and seasoned squash or sweet potatoes; plain or frosted grapes, and cranberry molds or cut-outs.

Provide a plate to which the garnish can be transferred before carving is begun. To accommodate garnish and turkey, the platter should be large so that the carver is not placed at a disadvantage.

If the partially carved bird is returned to the oven to be kept hot, replace it in the roasting pan. Do not place the platter and the carving utensils in the oven.

THE GREAT BETRAYAL

What to do about Communism in government probably is the most important issue to be decided by voters on November 4. Defenders of those who embraced Communism and betrayed our government were not limited to Roosevelt and Truman. Other high echelon officials popped the threat or praised Communists. For instance:

FOUR OF A KIND

HAROLD L. ICKES, late Secretary of Interior under Roosevelt: "... I suspect either the motives or the intelligence of those who would have us march our forces against a barely imaginary danger of Communism while Fascism thunders at the gates of our citadel of liberty." (Ickes quoted in Eugene Lyon's book, "The Red Decade.")

DEAN ACHESON, under-secretary of state under Roosevelt, secretary of state under Truman: "We understand and agree with them (the Communists) that to have friendly governments along her borders is essential both for the security of the Soviet Union and for the peace of the world." (Acheson speech before National Council of American-Soviet Friendship, 1945).

HENRY A. WALLACE, former Democratic vice president and cabinet member under Roosevelt: "Russia probably has gone further than any other nation in the world in practicing ethnic democracy. From the Russians we can learn much."

TOM CLARK, former attorney-general under Truman, now a Supreme Court justice: "Mr. Clark accused the (House Un-American Activities) committee of trying to 'mislead the people of this country into thinking that the government was full of Communist spies.'" New York Times, September 24, 1948.

Mossadegh's Bad Gamble

In breaking off diplomatic relations with Great Britain, Premier Mossadegh of Iran has merely formalized a condition that already existed.

From the moment the Iranian oil crisis began Mossadegh has shown absolutely no disposition to deal with the British except on his own terms. Since these were almost totally unacceptable to the British, there never was any real basis for effective negotiation of Britain's oil interests in Iran.

Mossadegh has gambled throughout this trying period on his belief that the West could not allow Iran to suffer too greatly, for fear it might fall prey to Russian communism. That is the foundation of his stubborn stand.

His severing of ties with Britain suggests he now understands that this strategy will not work as applied to the British. But it suggests also that henceforth he is putting his chief reliance upon the United States.

In other words, the Iranian premier seems convinced that America will not stand by and watch Iran sink into a financial abyss but will be compelled by the necessities of the world power struggle to rescue a tottering government.

For us this poses a dilemma. We indeed cannot blithely permit Iran to crumble and Russia to pick up the pieces. But neither can we move eagerly and positively to Mossadegh's aid, for in this course we would be sharply undercutting Britain's position. And Britain is a greater ally in the world power contest than Iran, for all its oil.

RUTH MILLETT

Woman Takes Men to Task For All Their Sloppy Ways

Heard a woman complaining the other day that the American male was becoming so informal and relaxed that he was getting downright sloppy in both manners and dress.

Said she: "After I've spent two days polishing silver and cleaning shrimp for dinner guests, it seems to me it is downright rude for the men to come in sports shirts. Especially when all of their wives arrive looking like they were going to a dinner party instead of a neighborhood drive-in."

"And while I'm all in favor of guests being comfortable, it doesn't seem to me the men have to relax to the point of practically sitting on their necks."

"Nor do I think they are so worn out from the day's work and so in need of rest they don't need to stand up when a woman enters the room. If they are that worn out they ought to stay home."

THEY AREN'T IGNORANT OF GOOD MANNERS

"If all these men I'm talking about hadn't been brought up to know what a gentleman owes his hostess and the other women present I wouldn't mind a bit."

"But they do know better. They've just taken the trend toward informality to mean that anything goes. That any hostess ought to be delighted to have them appear at a party wearing a loud, flowered, tail-out sport shirt; see them flop into the most comfortable chair available; slump down onto the back of their necks and behave as though they were in their own back yards resting up after a bout with the lawn mower."

Well, there it is, men. You've often critical of the women so you ought to be willing to listen when the women decide you, too, can stand a little improvement—or a lot.

Prayer for TODAY

For thy Church we pray, moving, as she is today, amid restless tides. Guide her lest she find her security in position rather than in purpose; her power in prestige rather than in prophetic preaching. Grant her the glory of human lives brought safely into the harbor of thy love. Amen.

—Elwin H. Scheyer, Tacoma, Wash., Pacific Northwest Conference executive secretary, The Methodist Church.

In Hollywood

By
JOHNSON

NEA Staff

Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD (NEA)— Behind the Screen: If Johnny Ray has his way, he won't sing in his first Hollywood movie scheduled for next April when he returns from a European tour.

Or in his second, third or fourth flickers for that matter.

The nation's crying-does-a-pity sensation told me between shows at Ciro's:

"I don't particularly care to sing in pictures and the studios that are interested in me know it. My background is acting—I did so much summer stock—and it makes me more valuable as a straight actor than a singer to Hollywood."

It turns out that Johnny was spurred to fame as a singer because a bit part he played in "A Place in the Sun" landed on the cutting-room floor.

"Hollywood plain told me to get lost," Johnny wailed. "They didn't like me because I wore a hearing aid. I was told to regain my hearing or forget about a movie career. The public wouldn't accept a physically handicapped kid, they said."

"I told 'em to go to hades. I proved that the public would accept me."

TAKING THE PLUNGE

Heavens to Betsy, if Denise Darcel isn't giving up those plunging necklines, midnight revelry in the glitter spots, and the ooh-la-las antics!

It's a new Denise—down from the 155 pounds she weighed in "Battleground" to a trim, 130 pounds for her role of a French channel swimmer in MGM's "Dangerous When Wet"—and she's out to be as ladylike as Irene Dunne.

"Now I've more experience," Miss D. D. confided. "I'm no more decollete. I love make-up scenes, but not, as my gown opens in front. Now I am wearing 'high turtle necks. See more modest."

"Any'bw, I've better back than front. Wonderful shoulders from swimming. When I wear dress very low in back, people say, 'Ooh, Denise, you have beautiful back.' See true. To me, I have so nice back I ever saw. So I ask 'em 'Oollywood that say photograph my back. Say say, 'No, we must 'ave your front.'"

Mannie Schwartz did it the hard way. Schwartz has been a tailor—and a good one—for 30 years. For the past couple of years, since leaving New York, he's tried to latch onto a job in the film business. No luck.

The other day he hit Joe Caplan of Paramount's wardrobe department for a job. Joe knew of an opening at the Western Costume Co. and Mannie goes to work there next week. As Mannie left the office, thanking Joe, he asked if he'd ever met his son.

Joe explained he hadn't and inquired his name.

"He's on the lot right now," Mannie explained. "He's making a movie, 'Houdini.' He's Bernie Schwartz, but out here they call him Tony Curtis."

At his dad's express wish, Tony refused to intervene to get him work.

CINERAMA PREDICTIONS

It may not happen this year or next, but Ray Bolger's aim primed to star in the first Hollywood color musical to be made in the three-dimensional process.

Headlining the show at a Las Vegas night spot, Ray looked across the vast room (as big as a Hollywood sound stage) and admitted that he's been talking to several producers about the "Dep-thies."

"Cinerama can be used for a full musical and will be," Ray predicted. "The audience will be dancing with the dancers. The eye will move through space with the dancers, and when the eye leaps into your arms, everybody in the audience will want to put up his arms to catch her. It would be sensational."

It's Don Porter's line about the two ghosts talking about a third ghost who once lived in Hollywood: "He's the black sheet of the family."

"A year in television helped me get the cement out of my acting," Blonde Lola Albright, who recently wed Jack Carson, is spilling the beans about her reason for leaving Hollywood. Now Lola's back, with roles in "Arctic Flight" and "Silver Whip," and saying: "I thought I was on the way to something after 'Champion,' but I couldn't get a job for six months. I felt I had to learn something about acting in the quickest way possible, so I did 24 TV shows in New York."

"Nobody in Hollywood saw them. When I came back to Hollywood, they wanted to know what had happened to me."

MOUNTAINOUS PEOPLE

At the height of its power, the ancient Inca empire comprised 10,000,000 people living almost exclusively in mountain ranges whose equivalent, length would stretch from Alaska to Mexico in a belt as wide as the state of California.

Well, Well, a Campaign Emblem for Both Sides

WESTBROOK PEGLER

Civil Rights Program Concocted by Former Member of Young Communist League; Pegler Points Out

(Copyright, 1952, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

The so-called civil rights program is an artificial issue and should have no part in a presidential campaign at a time when, by all the signs of civilian "defense" and the preparations for war, our major cities might be obliterated in a few hours. This program was thrust upon us by inspired schemers and I remind you that the attorney for the so-called president's committee on civil rights, which concocted the "program," was Nancy Wechsler, who, like her husband, James Wechsler, was a campus Red, a member of the Young Communist League, when both were students at Columbia. Wechsler is the editor of the New York Post. Both say they have abandoned Communism, but we have only their word for that. Certainly they have not devoted themselves to the frustration of the treasonous conspiracy of the Kremlin's agents among us as Ben Gitlow, Whitaker Chambers, Louis Budenz, and other traitors have.

Nancy Wechsler was picked for this sensitive job by a Dartmouth professor named Robert K. Carr, the "secretary" of the committee, and I earnestly commend this Carr to the cold, objective scrutiny of the Dartmouth alumni in their meetings this winter. Carr told me he didn't know this Wechsler woman and picked her to be the committee's counsel only because she applied for the job. I think the Dartmouth alumni, including Myles J. Lane, the U. S. attorney for the Southern district of New York, should give Carr a good going over. If he will not stand inspection, then John S. Dickey, president of Dartmouth should have to answer for him.

Mr. Lane, an old football star whose exploits came within my professional purview when I was doing sports in the era of wonderful nonsense, is now and has been for a long time engaged in the prosecution of the Communists second-team here in New York. He knows Communists and fellow-travelers. He knows their tricks and wiles, which include the time-worn device in planting a Red or a person who professes to have recanted in a key job on a public body.

With equal emphasis I suggest that the Dartmouth alumni take the same attitude and procedure in the case of Dickey. Dickey went to Dartmouth as president soon after the war from the State department without an hour's experience as a pedagogue. He had been a protégé of Senator William Benton in the State department and it will be kept in mind that Benton has been the most diligent propagandist in the campaign to discredit Senator Joe McCarthy of Wisconsin. The reason for Benton's concern over McCarthy's charges is obvious. Joe has the goods on Benton in many particulars and has forced him into the position of berating a fellow senator for exposing traitors.

I have interviewed a number of representative Dartmouth men of the old, loyal type with sorrow in their hearts over the change that has taken place since Ernest L. Hopkins, old "Hoppy," the beloved living tradition of the school, finally retired. These alumni do not exactly know how Dickey was wished on their school, but the version common among them is that he was planted by Nelson Rockefeller, who also was mixed up in the State department, holding one of those salad-dish jobs as co-ordinator of inter-American affairs. In that role this facsimile of Marshall Field, Averell Harriman and so many other pallid political fops with inherited fortunes and no heights to conquer, once hired Jo Davidson, a pro-Communist masquerader, with a brush of arty whiskers, to model plastic mud, make bronze casts of the heads of eight South American dictators as a gesture of good will and democracy. He paid this pro-Russian conspirator $25,000 of our taxes for this mud-head exploit while many a loyal native sculptor puttered along doing bookends and andirons. And the Davidson casts were hardly cool before the insurgents in the happy lands down yonder were using the bronze for driving hands to shell the presidents out of their palaces. I should have said that Rockefeller is a Dartmouth alumnus. He is no genius but his check-book speaks for him.

All this on the dismal condition at Dartmouth today is appropriate to the story of the civil rights fraud because Dartmouth, as an institution, has been thoroughly implicated in the business by Dickey and Carr, especially by Carr.

I wrote the other day that the committee's "report," which has become an official policy of the Truman administration, published in a book by the government printing office, relies on a hope that the Supreme court and other federal courts will approve proposals which seem unconstitutional even to the committee itself.

Bearing in mind that Nancy Wechsler, late of the Young Communist League, was the lawyer who drew up this tricky and devilish document after Carr had arbitrarily picked her for the job; you might find enlightenment in these excerpts from the "report":

"It is impossible to say how far the courts may be willing to go in recognizing the existence of specific rights at the national level or in approving the powers for Congress to enact the committee's proposals." In more honest words, the committee itself doubts that its own program is constitutional. "In the last decade," the report says further, "the court has announced that when a law appears to encroach upon a civil right, in particular, freedom of speech, press, religion and assembly, the presumption is that the law is invalid."

preme court decisions. It may surprise you to learn that Senator John Sparkman, the Democratic candidate for vice president on a platform containing this plan, damned it outright on constitutional grounds in 1948. I will tell you the details of that tomorrow.

So They Say

There still are people who believe that appeasement and compromise can lead to something. But totalitarian regimes respect only one thing—force.

—Dr. Ivan Keirns, former assistant UN secretary-general.

It (astronomy) helps you keep your perspective. There's nothing better for making you feel humble and your troubles seem unimportant.

THE DOCTOR SAYS:

Don't Disregard Fears of Child; Find Their Reasons

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.

Probably every child at one time or another develops some fear which causes him great distress. The child may be afraid of the dark, of dogs or cats, of witches, of hobgoblins, or of almost anything else real or imaginary.

Such childhood fears should not be tossed off by responsible grown-ups just because they know the fears are not justified—they are real enough to the child.

If the true nature of the fear can be coaxed out by the parents, the situation is usually made better merely by comforting, affection and reassurance. Often simply telling a child that the witches and hobgoblins are not true is quite enough to relieve them of one of the big worries in their little lives.

Children who carry the imaginary fears of the daytime over into the sleeping hours often groan and mumble in their sleep and sometimes wake up covered with perspiration and crying with terror.

When this happens, a special effort should be made to get at the nature of the fear and to discuss it frankly and calmly. Occasionally, if the nightmares cannot be prevented in this way, something more serious may be responsible which requires definite medical treatment.

A fairly common source of fears of this kind is one which parents often have difficulty in finding out about or even understanding when they do. If one of the children in a family seems to get more petting, affection, or attention from the parents, another child may develop a fear that he is adopted or is not wanted in the family group.

INSECURITY CAUSES FEARS
A feeling of insecurity in the home causes many of these fears. This is clearly a problem for the parents. Also, some children are born with more sensitive nervous systems and more imagination, and such youngsters are more susceptible to trouble of this kind.

Indeed, peculiarities of behavior may stem from fears which a child is concealing. Parents must be alert to such possibilities.

Jacoby on Canasta

Discarding Deuce Helped This Hand

By OSWALD JACOBY

"Please comment on the following play in Canasta," requests a San Francisco correspondent. "Both sides had melded after taking very small discard piles. Then the pack was frozen and just grew and grew until only three cards were left in the stock pile."

"My partner drew one of those three cards, which left only two more. This meant that this was probably his last chance to play, and he held the following cards:

A-K-Q-10-9-2

"Our side had melded four jacks and a pair of wild cards, so that my partner was tempted to add his deuce in order to complete the canasta. The trouble was that he didn't know which discard might be safe."

"He knew that nobody had melded or discarded any aces or kings; so that probably everybody at the table had a few aces and kings. There had been several discards and no melds in the other rackets (queens, tens, and jacks), but he wasn't sure how many of each had been thrown nor who had made these discards."

"He therefore discarded his deuce, knowing that it was the safest possible play. At the same time, of course, this discard gave up the canasta that he could have made."

"The next player drew and made a safe discard, and so did I. That ended the hand, and we didn't

Good to Eat

3 to 4-pound pot-roast
3 tablespoons lard or drippings
Salt
Pepper
1 cup water
6 medium potatoes, cut in half
6 small onions
6 medium carrots, sliced
6 stalks celery, cut in 1-inch pieces

Brown meat on all sides in lard or drippings. Season. Add water, cover closely and simmer about 2 hours, adding more water if necessary. Add vegetables and continue cooking 45 minutes or until meat is tender and vegetables done. Serve with gravy made from cooking liquid, 6 to 8 servings.

Add glamor to a long rope of pearls by winding them around your neck twice, and then bow-tieing the dangling loop with an inch-wide ribbon.

If you choose a bold pattern for slip covers, your draperies can be the same pattern, or you can pick up one of the colors in a stripe or plain material.

Two readings were given by Mrs. Raffenberg.

Autumn Theme
Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting from a table graced with a lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of gourds, Indian corn, hedge balls, and autumn leaves. Tall tapers in small pumpkins were on either side. Mrs. Peter J. Phalen was chairman of the refreshment committee assisted by Mrs. Floyd Green, Mrs. Chuck Bishop, Mrs. Don Nolan and Mrs. Frank Witson.

Mrs. William Watson was here from Oregon for last night's meeting.

Mrs. Walter Kyger, chairman of the Ways and Means committee, reported on the success of the rummage sale.

The next meeting will be at 8 p. m. Wednesday, Nov. 12, at the Legion hall.

Any Housewife Can Have Successful Business Career

By DOROTHY ROE

Associated Press Women's Editor

Any housewife, says Helen Scott, of Stamford, Conn., can have a successful business career at home. Because every woman has one thing she can do better than anybody else.

Helen, who is in private life Mrs. Martin P. Schultz, wife of a sales executive, found that she could bake better pies and cakes than anybody she knew, and on that has founded a successful business.

She started it several years ago when her husband was convalescing from a serious and costly operation, and netted a profit of $40 to $45 a week until her husband was on his feet again.

Joyous Victory
Helen Scott spoke recently to a group of housewives in Buffalo, N. Y., and said:

"To you who are interested in perfecting your skills and talents, no matter how burdened you may be with household responsibilities, life can be turned into a joyous victory if only you have the will to make it so."

Anything you may have a knack for may be money in the bank, says Helen Scott. All you have to do is make it better than anybody else—and then market it.

See Illinois Switch to Eisenhower

CHICAGO—(AP)—The collective view of Illinois newspapers and election correspondents is that Illinois remains doubtful but there has been a switch of sentiment toward Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower in the last seven weeks.

The second county-by-county survey, conducted by The Associated Press, shows a belief that the shift toward Eisenhower has been strong enough to lean Illinois and its 27 electoral votes toward his corner.

In the previous county-by-county survey, conducted seven weeks ago, the state leaned slightly toward Gov. Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic candidate.

Truman in '48
In 1948, President Truman carried the state by a narrow margin over Thomas E. Dewey.

The most widely listed reason for the belief that sentiment has switched toward Ike was the fact that Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio now is supporting Eisenhower actively. The editors believe this has caused former Taft followers to campaign more actively for the general.

Forty-two dailies and 10 weekly newspapers contacted in the survey are supporting Eisenhower. Only one daily and three weeklies are supporting Stevenson. Twenty-four dailies and weeklies are supporting neither candidate, or have not yet made a decision.

The Associated Press in making the survey sent a questionnaire to all its member newspapers in the state. In counties not covered by a member newspaper, the questionnaire was sent to the regular (AP) election correspondent. These include editors or staff members of daily and weekly newspapers, county clerks or member radio stations. Nearly all have been reporting their county election results for many years.

The Question:
In this and in the previous survey, the newspapers and election correspondents were asked: "If the election were held now, how do you think your county would go?"

In the second survey, they were asked to state whether they think sentiment has shifted, and why. They were asked to list their estimated results in percentages. These were figured on the basis of the county's total presidential vote four years ago. The totals then were added, and the total percentage computed.

In counties where there are more than one member newspaper, each was invited to participate. The average percentage then was computed from their estimates.

In five of the state's 102 counties, the newspaper or election correspondent declined to make an estimate. None of these was a large county.

44 Show Shift
Of the 102 counties, 44 thought there had been a shift of sentiment toward Eisenhower. Fourteen others thought there had been a switch toward Stevenson. Many others thought there had been no change since their previous estimate.

The Taft support of Eisenhower was mentioned by many editors in listing their reasons for a switch in sentiment. Comment included: John Dreiske, Chicago Sun-Times: "Recent Eisenhower and Taft speaking here is bound to have had some pro-Ike effect. However, percentages will shift in Stevenson's favor as local Democratic organization activity intensifies in the next few weeks."

Champaign News-Gazette: "Taft people are pretty well sold on Ike and are now working hard."

DeKalb Daily Chronicle: "Taft supporters have stopped sitting on their hands."

Enhances Vote
C. R. Ketrledge, editor, Kewanee Star-Courier: "Sen. Taft's all-out support for Gen. Eisenhower has greatly enhanced the Republican candidate's campaign in the Henry-Bureau-Stark Counties area. Northern Illinois, particularly in the rural regions where support previously was lukewarm."

Similar comment came from C. Raymond Long, publisher, Elgin Courier-News; the Waukegan News-Star; the Dixon Evening Telegraph, and many others.

Edward Lindsay, editor of the Lindsay-Schaub Newspapers with headquarters at Decatur, also mentioned Taft's support in helping Ike in some of the counties of the Decatur area. He added that an anticipated Republican special campaign in Macon as a "critical" county might help Eisenhower somewhat in that county.

See Record Vote
Herbert E. Wilson, managing editor of the Rock Island Argus, said an all-time record vote was indicated by heavy registration there.

"Political observers are divided on the significance of the influx, but most believe it points to a Republican trend, a vote against the 'Ins', Wilson said.

John Grimes, executive editor of the Rockford Morning Star and Register-Republic, also mentioned heavy registration there and said the Democrats "have kept their registration pretty well up to date, and the increase appears to come from groups smitten with voting fever on the other side."

J. Emil Smith, editor of the Illinois State Journal at Springfield, said he believed Eisenhower's recent visit there had helped sentiment for him in Sangamon county, home of the state's capital.

This election is confusing and hard to figure, several said.

"Never before have I talked to so many people who are undecided between the two candidates," said Jack Sundine, editor of the Moline Dispatch.

"Experts have never been so perplexed," said V. Y. Dallman, editor of the Illinois State Register, Springfield.

Several of the victims said they were robbed of small change, but details of the individual escapes, other than the Cooksons, were not available immediately.

Third Car Stolen
Mr. and Mrs. John Tucker of White County, Tenn., and their 12-year-old daughter. Theirs was the third car stolen, and the one still missing.

At one point, when Mrs. Tucker failed to drive rapidly enough to suit them, one of the bandits fired his pistol, barely missing Tucker.

Several of the victims said they were robbed of small change, but details of the individual escapes, other than the Cooksons, were not available immediately.

Marriage Licenses have been issued by County Clerk Sterling D. Schrock to the following:

Glenn F. Spangler, 20, and Miss Donna Yingling, 21, Franklin Grove; Lucian E. Bell, 52, Ashton, and Miss Henrietta M. Osterheld, 40, Franklin Grove; Douglas B. Smith, 19, and Miss Joanne C. Anderson, 18, both of Amboy.

Demo Backs Ike
NEW YORK—(AP)—John W. Davis, unsuccessful Democratic presidential candidate in 1924, announced Wednesday he will support Republican standard-bearer Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Jurists Will Study Rights Of Employes in Red Hunt

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (U. Trygve Lie began recruiting an international jurists' panel today to study what U.N. employes have to tell to U. S. congressional investigators.

Lie already had fired one American U. N. employe who balked at a McCarran committee question, suspended another and put 10 on special leave.

The jurists, a statement from the U. N. secretary-general said, would study the application of U. S. law to U. N. employes, especially those who are American citizens, and the rights of investigating bodies to ask them questions about their private lives.

Dismiss One

Lie announced Wednesday night he had dismissed Stanley Graze, 36,000-a-year railway statistics expert of the U.N. Technical Assistance Administration, and suspended Jol Gordon, pending a full investigation, from his $10,000 post of trade analysis expert of the Economic Affairs department.

Lie's statement said both had refused to tell the Senate Internal Security subcommittee, at hearings in New York Oct. 13-15, whether they are "presently engaged in espionage activities against the United States."

Those put on special leave at full pay while their cases are investigated, had refused to answer committee questions about Communist affiliations. They are:

On Special Leave

Frank C. Bancroft and Julia Older, $7,300 a year each, editors in the document division of the Department of Conferences and General Services; Hope Dorothy Eldridge, $7,500, population statistics expert, Economic Affairs department; Jack S. Harris, $9,000, researcher on territorial matters for the Trusteeship Council; Jane M. Reed, $5,200, library liaison officer; Alexander Svanchansky, $8,350, who prepared news and feature programs for U.N. broadcasts to Russia; Alfred Van Tassel, $9,000, chief of the special projects economic section of the Technical Assistance Administration; Marjorie (Mrs. Herman) Zap, $4,800, Economic Affairs department officer.

A spokesman said the case of Ruth Crawford, publications officer of the Children's Fund, still is under review. She admitted that she had been a Communist party member—briefly in 1935.

Blackhawks Now Tied For Second

By The Associated Press
Howie Meeker, a member of parliament, scored his first goal of the season Wednesday night to lead the Toronto Maple Leafs to a 5-4 triumph over Detroit's powerful and highly favored Red Wings. The victory moved the Leafs into a three-way tie with Chicago and Montreal for second place, one point behind the pacesetter Wings. Meeker's goal in the third period clinched a three goal barrage that enabled the Leafs to wipe out a 4-2 deficit.

The New York Rangers and Boston Bruins battled to a 3-3 tie in the only other game. Little Wally Hergesheimer fired home all three of the Rangers' markers. Boston had a 2-0 lead in the first period.

The form letter on Coach Don Barnhart's desk was signed by Jack Frowell, Champaign News-Gazette sports editor, the man who taps high school football players for All-State honors and juicy scholarships.

THE FORM letter said, in effect: Dear Coach, please help me pick the top high school football players in the state.

The strange part of the situation was this: Neither Barnhart nor this reporter could recall any absolutely standout players Dixon has faced this season.

BARNHART WAS of the opinion that Sterling's Glen Alderfer was the best back the Ducks have looked at, but after that he couldn't recall any boys who could be classed as All-State material.

Reading the papers from surrounding communities, it would seem that perhaps Mendota's Walt Klinge, a backfield ace who does everything, might be the North Central conference's top individual player.

Any other suggestions?

BARNHART, of course, had better things to do Wednesday than ponder the hotshots he's watched in previous games. He was most concerned about getting some vitality back into the Dixon defense. He left no doubt that he was disappointed with the performance of the Ducks against Hall. The game statistics, which gave an overwhelming edge to Hall, furnished proof enough that Dixon's defense was something less than adequate. Hall rolled to no less than 19 first downs on the ground and through the air.

SO BARNHART tossed aside Mr. Frowell's form letter and took out some writing tools of his own. When last seen, he was engaged in that never-ending diversion of the coaching fraternity. Barnhart was diagramming defenses that he hoped might plug those gaps Hall Township found so convenient last week.

With the Homecoming game with Princeton just a week away, plans for the usual Homecoming trimmings are well advanced.

APPROPRIATELY enough, a pair of football players, Dick Thomas, a freshman back, and Bob Whisenand, senior defensive back, are winners of the annual poster and slogan contests at DHS.

"Yeah Purple! Yeah White! A touchdown for each stripe—of the Princeton Tiger!"

WHISENAND hails from home room 201, while Thomas is from home room 302.

Each home room will enter a float in the parade scheduled for 7 p. m. next Thursday.

FURTHER festivities feature the crowning of a queen, honoring of the football team of 1932 and other '32 grads and a dance after the game.

Michigan Has Best Big Ten Offensive Team

CHICAGO (U)—Headed by the Big Ten's leading yard gainer, Ted Kress, Michigan tops the conference in total offense with an average of 577 yards per play.

For the first time since the second game of the 1951 season, Wisconsin has been forced to relinquish its lead in the total offense department.

The Badgers remain the No. 1 league team in total defense by yielding 230 yards per game; 79 less than second-place Ohio State.

Michigan shot to the front on attack in its 49-14 rout of Northwestern last week. In two Big Ten victories, the Wolverines have averaged 38 points and 410 yards from scrimmage.

Dukes at Rock Falls Friday

Hosts Have 4-1 Record For Season

Ottawa at DeKalb, Hall at Sterling In Other Games

Dixon travels to Rock Falls Friday night to play a Rocket team that has won four out of five games this season.

The Rockets have lost only to Geneseo, and list such teams as Sterling, Rochelle, Princeton and Mary's of Clinton as victims this season.

What's more, the Rockets still have a chance for the Southern division championship in the North Central conference.

According to reports from the west, Rock Falls boasts a speedy backfield and a hard-charging line. Last season Dixon needed a last-quarter rally to edge the Rockets. This season's game also is expected to be close.

Elsewhere in the NCIC, Ottawa will be at DeKalb, hoping to clinch the Northern division crown. Should Ottawa lose, and should Sterling defeat Hall, then Sterling and Ottawa would tie for the title.

In the Southern division, Mendota will try to clinch at least a share of its third successive championship when Princeton comes to town. Geneseo will play at Rock Falls in the other Southern division game.

Mt. Morris, Mt. Carroll Seek Title

MT. CARROLL (Special)—It will be Mt. Carroll vs. Mt. Morris here Friday night to see which team shall tie the Polo for the Blackhawk conference title.

Polo finished its conference season last week with a 3-1 record and will play Amboy in a non-conference game in Polo on Friday.

Both Mt. Carroll and Mt. Morris have 2-1 conference records. Mt. Morris got its chance for the tie by upsetting Lanark last Friday night at a Mound homecoming crowd cheered Coach J. R. Worley's crew.

Mt. Carroll was idle last week, lost to Lanark its last time out after handing Polo its only loss in the conference.

Polo would like nothing better than to see the two teams tie. A tie game would give the Maroons their third straight undisputed title.

Ohio Welcomes Bureau Friday In Little 8

OHIO (Special)—Coach Chuck Vall's Ohio Bulldogs welcome Bureau Township to town this week, while two of the Little Eight conference leaders, Sheffield and Wyand, battle in Sheffield.

Should both Ohio and Wyand win, the Little Eight race would be decided three-fold. Wyand and Ohio have 5-1 ratings, while Sheffield leads the conference with a perfect 6-0 mark.

Other games this week send Bud to Manlius, Malden to LaMolle and Melville to Neponset for a battle of second-division teams.

Ashton Travels To Kirkland

In the Rainbow conference Friday, Ashton travels to Kirkland hoping to climb above the 500 mark in the Rainbow conference standings.

After losing to Winnebago, 34-24, last week in the Homecoming game at Ashton, the Aces of Paul Crafts have 2-3 conference rating.

Mickey Mantle Moves to Ft. Sill for More Checks

OKLAHOMA CITY—There were more Army draft physicals in state today for Mickey Mantle, the New York Yankee outfielder, who Wednesday went through his third selective service checkup in less than two years.

The 21-year-old Commerce, Okla., Comet has been ordered to Ft. Sill this morning for a "more comprehensive examination" of a leg bone ailment which has so far kept him out of military service.

Mantle, who starred in the World Series, is forced to wear protective pads on his ailing left leg while playing.

He suffers from osteomyelitis, a bone disease. The powerful switch hitter, now supporting his widowed mother, three younger brothers, a sister and an expectant wife, is expected to request a dependency deferment in the event Ft. Sill doctors find him acceptable.

Not So Close
SENDAI, Japan—The girls' softball team of Tokushima Prefecture was a bit outclassed in a recent game.

Osaka eked out an 85-9 victory in seven innings.

A game between Gifu and Koyto men's teams was closer. They went 28 innings before Gifu won 4-3.

DHS Homecoming Poster Winners

DICK THOMAS, right, is first-place winner in the annual DHS Homecoming poster contest this year. Thomas, a freshman, also plays football. Second place went to David Emmert, left, a sophomore.

Dixon's Runners Win

Prepare for District in Triangular

MORRISON (Special)—In a final preparation for Saturday's district meet at Sterling, Dixon's cross-country team defeated Morrison and Rock Falls in a triangular meet here Wednesday.

The Dukes finished with 29 points, while Morrison had 45 and Rock Falls 55. The Dixon cross-country team also won.

Morrison Runner First
Although Morrison's Don King finished in the varsity race and Schwab of Rock Falls was second, the Dixon runners dominated the other top places.

Lou Wigginton finished third, Art Gann fourth, Ivan Adams fifth, Bill Beanblossom seventh, Don Wigginton 10th, Jack Winder 11th and Glenn Bock 13th.

King's time for the 1.35 miles course was 8:56.5.
In the freshman race, won by Dixon with 32 points, while Rock Falls and Sterling had 48 and Morrison 91, Don Alter was the individual winner for Dixon. He ran one mile in 5:40.

Halverson Third
Other Dixon placers were Dallas Halverson third, Mike Wilson sixth, Tom Gower 10th, Dick Nelson 12th and Howard Mighell 18th.

The district meet Saturday at Mississippi park, Sterling, will start at 10 a. m.

LIONS CLAIM SCOTT
PHILADELPHIA—Clyde Scott, Philadelphia Eagles half-back, has been claimed on waivers by the Detroit Lions, the Eagles announced Wednesday.

Giel, Kress to Duel When Gophers, Wolverines Meet in 'Jug' Showdown

ANN ARBOR, Mich.—A duel between two of the hottest college football players in the nation is the chief drawing card in Michigan's Western Conference clash with Minnesota here Saturday.

Michigan's Ted Kress, Associated Press back of the week, current league total offense leader, and individual Big Ten single game rushing champion, will be facing Paul Giel.

Giel Leads
Giel is the 1951 Big Ten total offense leader from Minnesota. To cap the situation, the two schools are fighting to remain at the head of the current race for the Western Conference championship with two league victories each.

Kress ran wild against Northwestern last week and Giel led his Gophers to an upset victory over pre-season favorite Illinois. A crowd of about 80,000 is anticipated. Minnesota hasn't beaten Michigan since 1942.

The junior halfbacks both stand 5-11 with Giel ten pounds heavier at 185.

Kress sets Mark
Kress set a new Big Ten record of 218 yards on 20 rushing attempts in Michigan's win over Northwestern. His 474 yards passing and running in two conference games for an 8.94 average per play in currently tops in the Big Ten.

Including Minnesota's losing non-league efforts against California and Washington, Giel has collected 308 yards and one touchdown running and 193 yards on 14 of 36 passes that netted three touchdowns.

Bivins Earns Split Win Over Bascom

ST. LOUIS (U)—Short, stocky Jimmy Bivins overpowered a game but inexperienced Wes Bascom for a split decision Wednesday night in their televised 10-round fight at the St. Louis Arena.

The 32-year-old Cleveland heavyweight was the aggressor all the way.

Judges Fred Connell and Harold Hess gave the fight to Bivins by identical 51-49 margins. Referee Benny Kessler saw it as a 50-50 draw. The two boxers, both Negroes, split 10 points a round under Missouri's ring code.

While Bivins swung lustily, he at times had difficulty hitting the crouching, weaving Bascom, a 23-year-old product of nearby East St. Louis, Ill.

McDermott Now Sings In Boston

BOSTON (U)—Maury McDermott, Boston Red Sox left-handed pitcher, appears to have launched a profitable off-season career as a professional singer.

McDermott made his debut at a downtown dine-dance spot Wednesday night and his tenor offerings were well received. He also imitated several famed performers, including a crying crooner.

"I was much more jittery than when I made my first major league start," McDermott said.

McDermott has a two weeks engagement for a reputed $800 weekly salary and has several radio and television bookings for the immediate future. He also confesses to being something of a harmonica virtuoso and may put that instrument into his act.

A's Release Dick Fowler

ONEONTA, N. Y.—Dick Fowler, 30-year-old right-hander who once pitched a no-hitter for the Philadelphia Athletics, said Wednesday he has been released outright by the American League club. Fowler said he would try to hook up with another major league club or an AAA team.

He won 15 games for the A's in both 1948 and 1949, but in recent years has been bothered by a sore arm. He pitched his no-hit game against the St. Louis Browns on Sept. 9, 1945. Philadelphia won, 1-0.

ILLINOIS OVER PURDUE: AP EXPERT

Swami Picks Top Grid Battles of Weekend

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

NEW YORK (U)—A seasonal average of 781 means that of every 24 selections, 19 are correct. It also means that five are wrong.

There's no indication which "winners" of the following college football games this weekend are incorrect.

Michigan State over Penn State: Penn State is unbeaten but Michigan State should preserve its No. 1 ranking with ease.

Maryland over LSU: Maryland's nickname and mascot is that of a turtle. If you remember the fable, the turtle always got there first.

Oklahoma over Kansas State: If Kansas couldn't stop the Sooners, the K-Staters certainly aren't strong enough to do it.

Illinois over Purdue: Your Saturday afternoon TV feast. The Illini hospital list is long but the homecoming enthusiasm should be just enough to get them past the ambitious Bollermakers.

Southern California over California: The Trojan defense, fourth best in the country, to shackle Johnny Olazewald & Company.

Georgia Tech over Vanderbilt: Vanderbilt has been good for an upset a year since Bill Edwards became coach but this doesn't appear to be the spot.

Duke over Virginia: Two unbeaten teams with potent defenses and everything indicates it should be a 21-21 deadlock. Duke's superior reserves get the nod.

Wisconsin over UCLA: In the belief that Alan (The Horse) Ameche will bust loose for a big day.

Notre Dame over North Carolina: That two-week polo layoff hurt Carolina's timing.

Midwest: Oklahoma A & M over Detroit, Indiana over Northwestern, Missouri over Iowa State, Michigan over Minnesota, Ohio State over Iowa.

South: Cincinnati over Kentucky, Alabama over Mississippi State, Auburn over Tulane, Georgia over Florida, Tennessee over Wofford.

Southwest: Texas over Rice, Baylor over Texas A & M.

Far West: Oregon over Montana, Washington State over Oregon State, Stanford over Washington.

FRIDAY NIGHT

Fordham over Boston College, Miami over Marquette.

SATURDAY

East: Columbia over Army, Penn over Navy, Dartmouth over Harvard, Holy Cross over Syracuse, Princeton over Cornell, Pittsburgh over West Virginia.

Open House To Be Held at 3 p. m. Sunday

MT. MORRIS—The final ceremony in completion of the new Mt. Morris high school building will be marked Sunday with formal dedication of the building and an open house. The dedication will be held at 3 o'clock.

Presentation of the building will be made by R. G. Hough, president of the board of education. J. L. Buford superintendent of schools at Mt. Vernon, will be main speaker.

High school teachers will answer questions on the new building at the open house. The building has seven classrooms, large shop with bus storage space, kitchen and cafeteria and physical education room combined with an auditorium and dressing rooms for boys and girls.

These rooms have been in use since opening of the current school term.

FFA Chapter Awards Given At Amboy Meet

AMBOY—Chapter Farmer degrees were presented to candidates from FFA chapters at Dixon, Amboy, Lee Center, Franklin Grove, Ashton, Steward and Pawpaw Tuesday night in the Amboy high school.

The presentation ceremony was staged by the Franklin Grove chapter degree team. Silver pins were given each candidate attaining the degree of Chapter Farmer. Later, Jim Evans, Ohio, spoke on the "Challenges, Responsibilities and Opportunities" of being a Chapter Farmer in the FFA. Reports on the national FFA convention were given by Jack Helman, Steward, and Don Burkhardt, Lee Center.

"Best Seller"

that's too good to miss

The rest of the industry took a look—and decided to make a carbon copy.

Over the years, these "hard top" jobs have spread to every price range—including the big-volume, lower-priced three.

But this Buick version has forged ahead in popularity—and today it's the "best seller" in the whole "hard top" field—bar none.

What's the reason?

Well, it is—as you can see—a smoothie to look at and a smoothie to drive.

It's a Buick—with Buick's famous Fireball 8 Engine—Buick's Million Dollar Ride—Buick's exclusive Dynaflo Drive—Buick's Power Steering—Buick room, Buick comfort, Buick style—and Buick durability.

And when it comes to price—you will find out this: What you pay for a SPECIAL, a SUPER or a ROADMASTER RIVIERA will shine by comparison with the price tag of anything in their fields.

Isn't that enough to make you want to try out a RIVIERA today?

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series. †Optional at extra cost on Roadmaster and Super only.

Arsenic and Old-Fashioned Bullets Impassioned Paris Calendar of Crime

By ROSETTE HARGROVE
NEA Staff Correspondent
PARIS (NEA) — Lovers of sensation who haunt the courts have a marathon of crime in store for them in Paris this fall.

At least seven "causes celebres" are scheduled for hearing in the High Court of Justice. All involve women—five of them charged with murder—and all involve motives which run the scale of human emotions from love and hate to jealousy and greed.

Most sinister and unattractive of the defendants, as well as the most famous, is Marie (Arsenic & Old Lace) Besnard, a woman in her late 50's who looks like so many obscure provincial Frenchwomen you can see any day in the shadowy aisles of a parish church.

She will be making her second appearance in court to explain the death of 12 persons from arsenic and poisoning. Among these victims were two husbands, a father-in-law, sisters-in-law, a few friends and persons to whom she had rented houses.

At her first trial last February, the prosecutor charged that love of money was Marie's motive, since she had benefited by each of the deaths. But the defense counsel deadlocked the case by proving the laboratory tests to determine the presence of arsenic in the assorted corpses had been conducted haphazardly.

Pauline Debuissou is a "crime passionnel" heroine. At the Lille medical school she fell in love with a fellow student, Felix Bailly. They lived as man and wife until Felix came to Paris to complete his studies. Paris is a big city where pretty girls abound. Felix soon forgot Pauline.

Not Pauline. When her letters remained unanswered she came to Paris, and found her lover engaged to another girl. When he refused to break the engagement Pauline pulled out a revolver, fired three shots and killed Felix. When she tried to kill herself the revolver jammed.

ARSENIC & OLD LACE—Bespoken Marie Besnard will weep again in the Paris high court of justice this fall for her trial in the deaths of a dozen relatives, friends and tenants.

Shy and retiring Yvonne Chevallier killed her husband because she was jealous of his political career. When Pierre Chevallier was appointed Secretary of State to the Ministry of Youth and Sports, a big step up from deputy mayor of Orleans, Yvonne staged a violent scene and begged him not to accept. He refused, so she shot him.

Forty-two-year-old Renee Garreau's story is that of a woman who couldn't bear to lose her young lover.

Married to a major on the Military Headquarters Staff in Paris, she fell in love with Jean Deleu who was just about half her age and her husband's chauffeur. After several stormy years Jean Deleu tired of his mistress and tried to break away. She killed him.

Marie Poupard, another middle-aged woman, is a Parisian socialite whose name appeared often on the social pages. Now it appears in court reports, all because of a mysterious will.

The wife of a prominent lawyer,

DEATH AND OLD AFRICA: Sylvie Paul hides her face as she is brought back to Paris from North Africa on charges of murdering hotel-keeper Jeanne Perron. Police inspector at right holds Sylvie's daughter, over whom Sylvie and Jeanne quarreled.

Turkey Hit By Quake; 18 Are Dead

ISTANBUL, Turkey—A brief but sharp earthquake in the area of Adana in Southern Turkey killed at least 18 persons Wednesday and injured 40.

The tremor, lasting about five seconds, reportedly caused considerable damage in the city of 160,000. A breakdown in communications delayed full information but it was feared the death toll might prove much greater.

St. Louis Artist Wins $7,000 Prize

CHICAGO (AP)—Siegfried Reinhardt, 27-year-old St. Louis, Mo., artist, today was named winner of a $7,000 prize in competition to design a mural painting for a new building.

The mural, depicting the evolution of the reproduction arts, will adorn a reception room wall of Rand McNally & Company's new office building and factory in suburban Skokie. The firm produces maps and publishes various types of books.

Reinhardt, a widely known artist, also lectures and teaches drawing at the University of Southern Illinois, Carbondale.

Hollywood Has, They Say, a Script From 'Eternity' Book

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—They said it couldn't be done. But a producer has gotten a movie script out of "From Here to Eternity," the best-selling book laden with sex, four-letter words and slaps at the Army.

Many Hollywood producers had been interested in the James Jones novel. But most despaired of how to combine its elements into a movie that would get the combined blessing of the censors and the Pentagon. Columbia took a chance and bought the book. Now the studio claims it has an acceptable script which will be before the cameras in January.

The actual scripting was done by Dan Taradash. Novelist Jones was first brought out to whip up a treatment for his book, but that didn't work out. "Jones didn't seem to understand the censorship problems we have in the movies," producer Buddy Adler explained.

"Of course the four-letter words had to go," he continued. "We try to retain the same flavor by substituting words that have the same sort of feeling but are not offensive to audiences."

Much of the sex remains, he added, but in a form that will pass the Breen office, Hollywood's self-censorship group.

Some changes have been made in anticipation of Army disapproval, he remarked. The brutality of a stockade beating of a prisoner by a sergeant has been altered, he said.

The producer takes off this week to scout locations.

Single Bomber Hits 29 Trucks

SEOUL (AP)—A single B26 was credited with destroying 29 Communist trucks in North Korea Wednesday night and early today—the single-trip record this year for any bomber of the Third Bomb Wing.

Pilot of the plane was Lt. Russell S. Buker of Medford, Mass. He said the trucks went up in a series of explosions when he caught a convoy near Hagju in western Korea.

"The explosions were so heavy they jolted our aircraft at 3,000 feet," he said.

South Beloit Utility Will Limit Gas

CHICAGO (AP)—The South Beloit Water, Gas and Electric Co. has been granted authority by the Illinois Commerce Commission to limit supplies of natural gas to consumers.

The ICC said Wednesday it had permitted the company to reduce supplies to residential and commercial space heating customers and to large volume industrial users because of limited supplies. Illinois area affected are South Beloit, Rockton and Roscoe Townships, Winnebago County.

The South Beloit firm is a subsidiary of the Wisconsin Power and Light Company, one of 14 gas utilities supplied by the Michigan-Wisconsin Pipe Lines Company. Michigan-Wisconsin is unable to meet all the requirements of its utility customers and has been authorized to set up quotas for each utility.

Moline Council Asks Bus Permit Be Revoked by ICC

MOLINE, Ill. (AP)—The city council of Moline has asked the Illinois Commerce Commission to revoke the bus operating franchise of the strikebound Rock Island Moline City Lines, Inc.

Dan H. McNea, Moline city attorney, said Wednesday he filed the petition asking revocation of the company's permit with the ICC office in Chicago. City officials of Rock Island and Silvis have

Reds Authored War Tragedy But Refuse to Write Ending

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Korean War has assumed the full trappings of a Greek tragedy. It is being argued with fury on the American political stage as one of the main issues in the presidential campaign. To this will be added the gloomy chorus of the diplomats debating Korea in the halls of the United Nations.

But in this play the authors, the Communists, have refused to write an ending.

The United States, backed by France and Britain, pushed for immediate debate in the U. N. on Korea. So the debate begins.

Acheson to Speak
Secretary of State Acheson is expected to lay down today the case for the U. S. and its allies in the Korean War against the Communists. Andrei Vishinsky, Russia's foreign minister, is on hand to blast the U. S. for the Communists.

The U. S. and other U. N. nations may condemn the Communists, who, operating on the theory that sticks and stones may break their bones but names can't bother them, will hardly be impressed.

This is the position of the U. S. and the Communists before the debate begins.

The Korean War, slowed down when truce talks began more than 15 months ago. By last May the U. N. and the Communist truce teams had agreed on 62 points preliminary to a truce.

Only one point remained: If there was a truce, how would the two sides exchange prisoners? It's still the only point of real disagreement.

Must Return
The U. N. said any Communist prisoners in its hands would not have to return to Communist territory if they didn't want to. The Communists insisted that all prisoners be returned.

It wouldn't be a boost for their claims about the people under Communism loving Communism if many of the Red prisoners refused to go back.

The U. N. said many of its prisoners didn't want to go back. The two sides deadlocked on this point.

Two weeks ago the meetings were broken off by Lt. Gen. William K. Harrison Jr., head of the U. N. truce team. He told the Communists no more talks until they were ready to talk turkey. So discussion of Korea has moved from Panmunjom to New York.

Argyll Stable Places Third At Kansas City

KANSAS CITY (AP)—An Illinois exhibitor won four ribbons Wednesday in the male division of the American Royal Livestock Show.

The entries of Halcomb, Murphy and Goffinett of Blue Mound, was adjudged first in both the three-year-old pair mule and five mule competition.

The Blue Mound exhibitors also won second place for a three-year-old mare mule and third for a one-year-old pair of mules.

Horse show results included: $500 hackney pony stake, single, over 13 hands—(1) King's Review, Mark Peak, Winchester, Ill.

$500 heavy harness hackney horses stake, 15.1 hands and over—(3) Argyll Magician, Argyll stables, Mt. Carroll, Ill.

Roadster, single, to 4-wheel road wagon—(1) Senator Play Boy, R. C. Flanery, St. Charles, Ill.

Senator Taft Devotes New Jersey Speech To 'Giving Facts' After Truman Leaves

ASBURY PARK, N. J. (AP)—Sen. Robert A. Taft, campaigning for Republican presidential nominee Dwight D. Eisenhower, devoted most of his speech here Wednesday night to comments on President Truman's talks in the state Tuesday.

"... Nothing he says in these whistle-stop tours can be relied upon until the facts are carefully checked," said Taft.

The President's speeches in Jersey City and Philadelphia, Taft added, "contain the usual demagoguery in which Mr. Truman indulges. They misrepresent the position of the Republican party and claim credit for Democratic accomplishments which have never been accomplished."

Backed Housing
"Mr. Truman says we Republicans have been against low-cost housing. But I was the fellow who put the public housing bill through the Senate twice. It was not quite as Mr. Truman wanted it, because it provided some protection against extravagance and socialism."

"Mr. Truman says that the Republicans have a long record of voting to obstruct and cripple the social security program. As a matter of fact, Sen. Millikin (R-Colo.) and I were the ones who ordered the complete study... and then took the most active part" in expanding the program.

In his attack on the "wasteful" Truman administration, Taft said probably 20 per cent of the personnel of any department could be eliminated and the result would be "a more efficient government operation."

President Truman, he said, "has always claimed that the cutting of 1 cent from his budget would mean the destruction of the entire project and the very existence of the country."

Find Waste
"Yet, every expert investigation finds that government programs are wasteful."

Further referring to portions of Truman's speeches, Taft commented on what he said was the President's claiming of credit for creating the Central Intelligence Agency, strengthening the FBI, and stopping Communist aggression in Greece and Turkey.

Of these claims, Taft said:

1. The CIA "was set up in the unification bill passed by the 80th Republican Congress."
2. "It's no secret in Washington that New Deal advisers have wanted to get rid of the FBI at every favorable opportunity."
3. The halting of Communist aggression in Greece and Turkey "was about the only real piece of bipartisan foreign policy that I have seen, and it was as much a project of the 80th Republican Congress as it was of Mr. Truman."

Retired Pastor Dies in Rockford

ROCKFORD, Ill. (AP)—Rev. William Warren Liston, pastor of the Evans Memorial and Harlem Methodist churches here, died Tuesday. He was 78.

Rev. Liston had been receiving treatment for a heart ailment.

He had served Chicago area churches from 1921 to 1948. He left Chicago twice during that time to lead Rockford's Grace Methodist church and a congregation at Elgin, Ill.

Funeral services will be held Friday at Rockford, with burial at Freeport.

Missouri Senate Battle Becomes Roughest Contest in Many Years

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP)—A fight for President Truman's old Senate seat has turned into one of the roughest political brawls Missouri has seen in years.

In one corner: Republican Sen. James P. Kem, 62, a lawyer.

In the other: Stuart Symington, 51, St. Louis businessman and former government trouble-shooter.

Kem says Symington "is not a 5 per center—he is a 500 per center." He charges Symington made money out of war contracts and helped some of his friends to feather their nests too.

Symington says, "Everyone knows Kem is the outstanding reactionary and isolationist in the Senate." He charges Kem "is throwing up a smoke screen to hide his own miserable record as a senator."

Debate Three Times
Three times the men have met in debate, twice on planned programs. The other time it was a battle of sound trucks when their campaign trails crossed accidentally in a hill country town. The applause has been about equal.

Kem won renomination easily.

One State Drives to Dry Up After-Hour 'Bottle Clubs'

'Legal' Type of Postwar Speakeasy Giving Police All Over Nation Headache

HARTFORD, Conn.—(NEA)—A new postwar-type of drinking establishment—the locked-door, after-hour "bottle club"—is giving police in cities all over the nation their toughest time since the speakeasy days of the 1920s.

But while the speakeasies were clearly illegal during the prohibition era, the new bottle clubs present an entirely new wrinkle: they are strictly "legal" in the sense that there are no laws governing them.

They have flourished in many places—New York and Washington are notable examples—but so far nothing has been done about them unless they actually "sell" liquor. Now the state of Connecticut, which finds itself plagued by the bottle major who makes licensed bars too the mark, says he will ask the 1953 state legislature to place the clubs under his agency's jurisdiction. Legislative leaders have promised prompt action. If Kelley's plan works, it may show the way for other states to move in on the clubs.

A bottle club is a regular club in that it has officers and members, each of whom pays around $10 to join and is given a key to the establishment. In Connecticut, for example, the only license cost is a $20 non-stock corporation license from the Secretary of the State's office. With that, plus a room, you're in business.

Zoning laws don't interfere as in the case of bars.

Members are supposed to furnish their own liquor, which can be kept there with their number pasted on. Ginger ale and other set-ups, along with ice, are the only items sold.

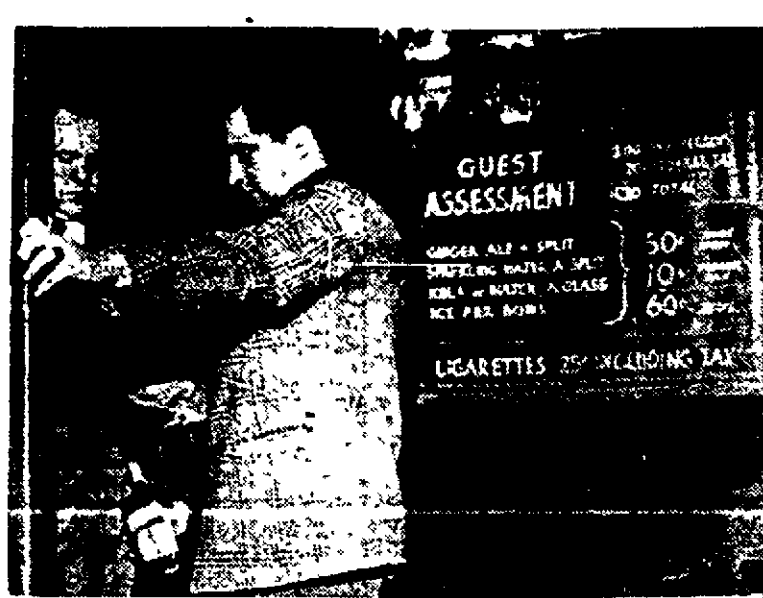

The club bartender is called the "steward." Juice boxes are often provided but no nickles are required. Charging for such music would mean a license.

Prime attraction for these unorthodox clubs are their "after-hour" activities. While bars and night clubs must close in Connecticut at 1 a. m. weekdays, bottle clubs are just beginning to boom at closing time. And the same goes after 9 p. m. Sundays. Often, they're open around-the-clock although general hours are from 7 p. m. to 5 a. m.

Hartford Police Chief Michael J. Godfrey says the lack of license requirements and their locked-door, curtained-window features make them practically impossible to supervise.

"Primarily, bottle clubs are hangouts for undesirable, gamblers, bookies and fringe society," he declares. "While minors aren't permitted in bars, there isn't anything to keep them out of bottle clubs."

Connecticut's highly-regarded State Police Commissioner Edward J. Hickey says his agency has spent thousands of dollars trying to clamp down on such activities.

"MEMBERS" ONLY is rule of "bottle clubs," where this patron's card is scrutinized at door, just as in speakeasy days.

but with little success because of their outside-the-law operations.

"They are nothing but a racket to defeat the liquor control act," he says. "They are the meeting place for all types of criminals, havens for fugitives and too frequently contact places for immoral purposes. And we are practically powerless to do anything about it."

Hartford County's venerable former state's attorney, Hugh M. Alcorn, sees the clubs as a "scheme to encourage and foster crime and misdemeanors." In the absence of a law against them, he suggests a "grand jury investigation of the entire situation."

With the bottle clubs put under state supervision, it is believed they will die out. For it will end their after-hour, locked door, and no $800 license status they have been enjoying.

However, even tougher legislation is being proposed by police groups who want the clubs outlawed for good and it is possible the lawmakers may take that course.

Hartford, which has about eight of these clubs, may get around to the subject sooner. The Common Council is strongly considering requiring health and police licenses of the local clubs as a stopgap measure pending action by the Legislature.

Pork, Beef Prices Dip In Markets

By The Associated Press

Retail pork prices were trimmed in many markets this week as supplies increased. Some cuts of beef also were lower.

Eggs advanced as much as 6 to 8 cents a dozen. Fresh fruits and vegetables showed little overall change.

Declining wholesale costs of pork made such items as loin roasts, pork chops and spare ribs popular choices for special pricing during the next few days, with reductions amounting to around 6 cents a pound. Smoked hams and butts also were lower in some places.

Beef Features

Cattle marketings also were heavy, and rib roasts, steaks and ground beef were shopping features in several chain and independent markets. Other meat items prominent on the lists of specials included small turkeys and frying chickens.

The prices of eggs spread between large and medium sizes, averaging around 20 cents, narrowed somewhat since the large sizes, bucking consumer price resistance, advanced only about 4 cents a dozen as against 6 to 8 cents for mediums. But market authorities said the mediums still were the more economical buy.

The new crop of hens in farmers' laying flocks is not expected to be producing large eggs for three or four weeks yet, and many traders believe prices as a whole will remain above year-ago levels for the rest of the year.

A few fresh vegetables worked a little higher price-wise as supplies from nearby growing sections fell off seasonally and shipments had to come from farther afield.

TURKEY TOPPERS

Turkey stuffing, thin slices of onion, tomato slices, cooked turkey meat—slices or small pieces—and slices of cheddar cheese.

For each serving—Form a patty of stuffing about 2 1/2 by 1 1/2 inches. Place on baking sheet and bake in a hot oven (400-425 degrees F.) 10 to 15 minutes, or until thoroughly heated. On the hot patty place in layers—1 or 2 onion slices, tomato slice, turkey and cheese.

Return to hot oven and cook about 15 minutes or until cheese starts to "run" down the sides. Top with a spring of parsley and garnish with cranberry sauce.

Instead of cheese, left-over gravy or tomato sauce may be served over the Toppers.

Liquid Steak?

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—That human meal, steak smothered with onions and mushrooms, can now be poured into a glass and sipped like a drug store fountain drink.

H. Ned Draudt, graduate student at Ohio State university and research chemist for Kingan and Co. of Indianapolis, Ind., is the man who turned the trick.

The liquid steak is made to order for persons with dietary problems or persons having difficulty chewing. It can be drunk either like a cocktail or spooned like soup.

It is an ideal solution to persons having waistline worries, Draudt said, for it is high in protein and low in calories. He said the steak would retail for 59 cents a can.

How Now, Cow?

RALEIGH, N. C. (U)—The North Carolina State College school of agriculture is conducting experiments aimed at reducing infertility in cows.

Dr. J. Clark Osborne of the department of animal industry says that infertile cows cost the American cattle industry $50 million dollars a year in lost calves and reduced milk production. A bacterial disease, vibriosis, caused by the germ vibrio fetus, causes affected cows to abort during the first six months of gestation or give birth to weak calves.

While treatment of infected cows has met with considerable success, no entirely effective preventative has yet been developed, says Osborne. College scientists are working to develop a vaccine to control the disease.

Robert Ingersoll, well-known lecturer, served as a colonel during the Civil War.

"I'll wash 'em, you dry 'em."

THERE'S A LION IN THE HOUSE—

Meet "Little Tyke," perhaps the only lioness in the world that won't eat meat. Tyke is the household—yep, that's right, HOUSEHOLD, pet of Mrs. Margaret Westbeau of Auburn, Wash. Recently when Tyke's mistress held a big juicy steak close to the lioness' mouth, the animal turned away, with an expression of horror, as if she had seen something ghastly. Like the dog that won't eat meat—because no one ever gives him any—Tyke has never developed her carnivorous instincts. She has been raised entirely on cereals. Today, some five years after a local zoo gave the Westbeaus the baby lioness to raise, "Little Tyke" still eats 12 different kinds of breakfast foods, mixed with milk. She lives right in the house with the family, hangs around the kitchen and even tries to help with the dishes. She even sleeps occasionally in bed with Mrs. Westbeau.

After a good-night hug and kiss, it's...

... off to the Land of Nod—we hope.

Those of Us With Little Courage, Here's a Story

By SAUL PETIT

HEMPSTEAD, N. Y.—Every now and then an obscure little man rises up in wrath and smites the sounds and sights of a world that is too much for him. In doing so, he becomes a hero to many of us who share his convictions but not his courage. Such a man is Frank P. Walsh. Unable to submit any longer as a captive audience, he rebelled. He shot his television set. He shot it dead, right through its 12 1/2-inch eye.

But Walsh paid the price of martyrdom. He lost his job. "And I'm still in my wife's doghouse," he said. "It's very cold." Mrs. Walsh, mother of five children ranging in age from 5 to 15, can't explain her husband's precipitous action. "The set may have been on a little too loud," she conceded. "But always before, when he complained of the noise, I turned it down and that was that." Mrs. Walsh looked forlornly at the empty corner of her living room so recently occupied by her television set. "I feel so lost without it," she said. "It cost $238 and I don't know when we can get another one. We had it two years and only made the last payment this August." Now, back to Frank Walsh, who is 38, tall and thin. He had nothing against television except when it disturbed his sleep. Several times before the fatal incident, he said, he had felt like shooting the set when the sound shook his early evening naps. "Finally," he said, "it happened. Sunday night I awoke hearing somebody scream, 'Hey, Ab-bott!' I have nothing against Abbott and Costello, but I was mad not being able to sleep. I figured the easiest way was the quickest. "I got my .38 pistol. I walked out of the bedroom and leaned over the rail overlooking the sunken living room. My wife and all the kids were there. "I told them to move over and then I fired from an angle, about 15 feet away. Caught the tube in the upper right corner. It exploded into a thousand little pieces but the glass didn't fly far. No-body was hurt, but the TV set was ruined. "Wife 'Scared' " "I guess my wife got scared. She took the kids outside and called the cops. They came and saw I was sober. They took my pistol and my pistol permit away. Without them, I couldn't work and knew it. "I did lose my job. You see, the detective agency employed me as an armed guard at an industrial plant. Without the gun permit, I'm useless to them. However, I'm still an electrician and I'm hoping I'll get more calls in that kind of work."

Old Man River

FT. MACLEOD, Canada (U)—The provincial government is dredging a new channel for the Old Man River north of its present course. The river changes course from year to year and the new channel is expected to prevent further encroachment near the town.

Reds Study

HONG KONG (U)—Red China's Ministry of Education says there are 218,000 students in colleges, 3,070,000 in secondary schools and 49 million in elementary schools in China. Thirty-five per cent of the collegians are studying engineering.

Conserves Add Tang To Meat

With roasts, cold meat or fowl, fruit conserves add a tangy extra taste. They are easy enough to make and a few jars on the pantry shelf are a good investment in pleasant eating.

Cranberry Conserve
Pick over cranberries and discard those that are specked or soft. For 2 pounds of sound cranberries use 1 cup raisins, 2 oranges, 3 cups sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 pint water. Wash the berries and the raisins. Peel oranges and discard seeds. Combine the fruits and the orange peel, and chop.

Add sugar, salt and water. Boil, stirring constantly, for about half an hour or until the jelly stage is reached. Pour at once into hot, sterilized jelly glasses and seal with paraffin or put into glass jars and seal.

Grape Conserve
Use slip-skin grapes such as Concord. Wash and drain the grapes and then remove them from the stems. To 4 pounds of the prepared grapes allow 2 pounds sugar, 1 cup seedless raisins, 1 orange, 1 cup nut meats, and 1/2 teaspoon salt.

Slip the skins from the grapes and keep them separated from the pulp. Peel the orange and discard the seeds. Chop the orange and peel fine. Also chop the nuts fine.

Boil the grape pulp, stirring constantly, for about 10 minutes, or until the seeds show. Press through sieve to remove seeds. To the grape pulp add the sugar, raisins, the orange and salt.

Boil rapidly, stirring to prevent scorching, until the mixture begins to thicken. Add the grape skins and boil for 10 minutes longer or until somewhat thick. Stir in the chopped nuts, pour at once into hot, sterilized jelly glasses or glass jars, and seal.

Score Haircuts For Politicians

BINGHAMTON, N. Y.—(U)—The TV appearance of President Truman and the presidential candidates leaves something to be desired, at least in the opinion of one barber here.

Rupert Juris says someone has run a pair of clippers high along the sides of Mr. Truman's head. "I don't know why he permits it," he said. "The President should taper from the top down, with no high ear line. Nobody on television should have a high ear line with a razor."

About Gen. Eisenhower he said, "The general does not have much hair up on top and should not let it grow too much on the sides. It is white there on the sides."

"Now Gov. Stevenson has none up on top," Juris said, "so his haircuts all are done so that the hair on the sides grows back thickly so that it even grows over the ears. This should not be done. He should taper, too."

41 Years Overdue

BUTTE, Mont.—(U)—A slow reader must have spent a lot of time on a book called "The Spenders"—it was returned to the public library 41 years overdue.

D. A. Rhyner found the book in a cabin. The check-out date read Sept. 30, 1911. Rhyner figured the borrower owes $747.55 in fines.

"If you can collect, I will gladly accept half," he told the library.

Train Trouble
VIENNA—One thing Communism in Czechoslovakia can't do is make the trains run on time. The Prague newspaper Rude Pravo recently complained that "the irregularity of trains is threatening the security of our railroads."

The newspaper said 65 per cent of all trains arriving and leaving the Slovak capital of Bratislava were late. "The total loss of time of trains in and out of Bratislava is 400 minutes a day," the paper said.

Teacher's New Champion

New Secretary of National Education Group Wants to Awaken Public to Crowded Schools

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
WASHINGTON—(NEA)—U. S. teachers have a new champion dedicated to winning them higher salaries and more and better classrooms. He is William G. Carr, executive secretary of the National Education Association.
As the top, permanent executive of the association his new position makes him one of the most influential educational figures in America. The association has a membership of one million teachers who daily instruct more than 30 million U. S. kids.
The serious, professional Carr has come up in the ranks from a junior high school teacher in California. Most of his time recently has been devoted to the international aspects of education.
Carr eagerly accepts the education association's traditional goals. "The number one problem facing American schools is the shortage of teachers," he maintains. "And the basic cause of that shortage is the fact that there isn't enough monetary reward in the field to attract young people," he says.

WILLIAM G. CARR: Progressive means progressively better.

mean education which is getting progressively better. And I am for that."

On communism in the schools: "There may be an infinitesimally small number of teachers in our schools who are Communists. We don't let them into our organization and I don't think that the number who are teaching, if there are any, can do much harm."

"I don't think that it's possible to sneak any Communist ideas into the textbooks. Textbook publishers are in business for a profit. And there's certainly no profit in printing books which try to teach Communist ideas. Besides, text books are so carefully screened by school officials and boards of education that it would be virtually impossible to sneak undesirable books to the pupils through this process."

On teaching the "three R's": "Teachers are continually studying and improving methods of teaching and good evidence of the improvement is that children read more and faster. Proof of the effect of this is the fact that people now buy about 54,000,000 newspapers every day."

On federal aid to education: "I am for federal aid to education which puts absolutely no control over education into the hands of federal officials. And a law can be passed that will prohibit such control."

On the development of character: "Schools today are emphasizing and making stronger the moral and spiritual values. The development of good character has always been one of the fundamental objectives of education. The public schools cannot teach religion as such but they can contribute much to the high ideals of conduct and offer continuous opportunities of the practice of them."

Stuff Pork With Sauerkraut

FRESH PORK SHOULDER plays a warming tune on chilly nights to the accompaniment of tangy sauerkraut and apple stuffing.

Brisk nights build large appetites for this recipe: fresh pork shoulder stuffed with sauerkraut and chopped tart apples. Sauerkraut-Stuffed Fresh Pork Shoulder (Serves 6)
One 5- or 6-pound fresh pork shoulder, skinned and boned, salt and freshly ground pepper, 1 No. 2 can sauerkraut, drained; 2 cups chopped unpared apples, 1/2 teaspoon paprika, 2 tablespoons melted bacon drippings.
Have butcher make pocket in pork shoulder for stuffing. Season meat inside and out with salt and pepper. In a large bowl, combine sauerkraut, apples, paprika and bacon drippings; mix lightly but thoroughly. Fill meat pocket with this mixture, but do not pack too tightly. Close opening with toothpicks or skewers.
Place roast, fat side up, on rack in shallow pan. Cook until tender in moderate oven (325 degrees F.) at 45 minutes per pound.
Here's another sauerkraut and pork recipe just right for this time of year. Sauerkraut is used abundantly now, incidentally.
Apple Sauerkraut With Roast Pork (6 to 8 servings)
Two pounds loin of pork, 2 teaspoons salt, freshly ground black pepper, 2 medium tart apples, 1 No. 2 1/2 can sauerkraut, 2 small onion, chopped, 1 tablespoon brown sugar.
Season loin of pork with salt and pepper. Place on rack in open roasting pan with fat side up. Roast in moderate oven (325 degrees F.) at 40 minutes per pound, or until meat is thoroughly done.
Wash, core and chop unpared apples. In bowl, combine apples, sauerkraut, onion and sugar; mix thoroughly. About 30 minutes before roast will be done, pour off most of pork drippings. Reserve for future use. Spread sauerkraut mixture around roast. Return roast to oven and continue to cook until done.

U. S. Friend to Head Japan Diet

TOKYO—Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida, 74-year-old friend of America and the Western world, today appeared assured of again heading the Japanese government.
His arch rival Ichiro Hatoyama, once purged for pro-Fascist writings, stepped out of the contest for leadership of the dominant Liberal party.
The Japanese Diet, sprinkled with former war criminals and many new Socialist faces but no Communists, will meet Friday.
